Other news include a progressive project called "Anthem Of Eon" which is currently under construction. This project features the great science fiction vision of Andy Gupta, who writes the songs also plays bass, Roger Wilkerson on guitar, John Wooten on drums, and myself.

And I am really excited about the latest collabs with my friends Mike Woodford and George Williams. Check out the song Paradox on Mike's playlist here:

Ian Burrage is mixing the songs for the band "Stonehinged" the title "The 13 Stygian Tales Of Roger And Trevor". All songs written by Ian and Casia (Kay Wong) and performed by Ian, Billy Playle, Andy Gupta and myself. I absolutely love these songs and it has been a fun project. Ian has a rather unique musical vision - I'm sure it will make you smile!
