dont know what to think of my self...

well, sometimes i listen to all the music here and i think . s*** what the f*** am I on here for? there are some dam good,awsome music on here, guys that should be on record labels.. Me Im a nothing , no body, a never will be or has been..

maybe thats part of why I left, as well as life problems with life , mother passing, friend passing, dog passing, and looking after my elderly father (87) and all that... I used to use music as a way to get away from all that... but I just dont have much in me these days.. I guess I'm letting off some steam here but just how I feel.. thanks for listening ..
