

Morgoth the Destroyer

BAND STORY

Classic progrock and metal with a modern approach played on extended range guitars and synths by a solo artist. A journey back into the lost world of classic progressive rock with subtle hints of medieval themes. All production, composing, and instrument performance by a solo artist producing a truthful personal vision of an individuals pieces of music. The use of extended range guitars add to the unique and unusual sound along with seldom used time signatures, structures, and instrument configurations. The lyrical stories speak to the intellect within a very unusual musical experience.

Rob. All instruments including; 7-st acoustic & electric guitars, 5-st bass, synths, percussion, foot synth, flute, and vocals

Blind Dates:)

Here is a sweet reminiscence of a blind date with a metal witch that raped me! lol What fun, but she was the reincarnation of Satan! Leather, whip and pleasure! It was just too much for poor little Audio Weapon. She broke me like a twig! hahaha Did I say What fun?:) God Bless Goth babes :p)
