Ghosts in the Tavern lyrics

The vocal melodies and lyrics to "Ghosts in the Tavern" were written by Chuck Law.

GHOSTS IN THE TAVERN

Where has life led...empty,my soul searches

Here i have bled...this tavern is my tomb

SCREAM

you can't touch me...you can't see me

you can't hear me...but you can feel me

There's another place in time where the cares can drift away

it can drive you out your mind but we take it anyway

It's already done there's no getting away

It's already done it's all misery...there's no getting away

Now the battle's in your mind...am i real or entity

Not too hard to see the signs...see how real that this can be

It's already done there's no getting away

It's already done it's all misery

I'm just a shadow floating somewhere between night and day

An aparition waiting for someone to look my way

There's a warning on the door above your head
