BAND STORY

Pennan Brae is a singer-songwriter from Vancouver, BC. His 2nd release, 'Amber Glow', was recorded at A Major Sound Studio on Prince Edward Island. Working with top Island musicians and producers on the project, the release features the lead single, 'Need You Now', with follow-up tracks being 'If I Lose You' & 'The Same Way'. 'Amber Glow' is currently receiving airplay on AAA Radio in the U.S.

In 2011, Pennan completed the music video for 'Anyways', the lead single from his 'Shaded Joy' release. The piece was filmed in snowy, sub-zero temperatures in the Okanagan Valley, BC. Six months prior, Pennan returned from Japan where he shot the video for 'Need You Now', his lead single from 'Amber Glow' amidst sweltering humidity. The project was filmed in Osaka & directed by Mogcat Productions.

Pennan's video for his single, 'Have You Ever Been' was completed in July 2010. Directed by Douglas DeBoer of Visual Alchemy, it was shot in Kauai & highlights the beauty of Hawaii. It features talented local model & actress Stephanie Perius.

Pennan released his video for 'Goin' Down' in March 2010 which featured successful actress Raquel Riskin (Supernatural, Stargate Universe) & was directed by the wonderful Thomas Smith of Spool Productions. Also this month, Pennan Brae was featured in the Vancouver Province newspaper in their 'Province Playlist' section.
